Dallas Design Legends Make Architectural Digest's AD100 List for 2016

by Joanna England

I could not be more proud of the design talent in Dallas than I am right now. Big D is becoming ground zero for interior design, it seems, and three of the most sought-after brands in the city made the Architectural Digest AD100-2016 list. That prestigious and exclusive list includes Jan Showers and Emily Summers, two Dallas designers that have become household names for the most tasteful homes in the region and the state.

Emily Summers

Not only are these two women total powerhouses — Showers has authored many books and Summers has her own boutique inside Highland Park Village — but they're all-around great human beings, too. We could not be more thrilled for them both.

Congratulations, ladies! We can't wait to see what you do next!
